

I am adding my complaint to the many others who have voiced grave concern over the halftime show during Superbowl XXXVIII. The obscene display must be dealt with severely. The continuing debasement of the most basic of values in our culture over the airwaves must be stopped.